DISCLAIMER

Marist Catholic High School is sincerely appreciative of the support from donations and sponsorships. We remind our supporters that Marist has absolute and final discretion and control over contracting with sponsors and the content of any sponsored advertising.

In addition, under current law and policy, Marist Catholic High School cannot accept sponsorship funding to promote organizations or businesses in the following areas:

- Organizations that discriminate by race, creed, gender, age or national origin
- Organizations with the primary purpose of influencing legislation

As a 501(c)(3) organization, Marist Catholic High School risks losing its tax-exempt status if it contacts, or urges the public to contact, a member or employee of a legislative body to propose, support, or oppose legislation.

- Political causes, candidates, organizations or campaigns

As a 501(c)(3) organization, Marist Catholic High School is prohibited from engaging in any "political campaign activity." This includes directly or indirectly participating or intervening in any political campaign on behalf of, or in opposition to, any candidate for public office.
